

Renewable Inputs for the Textiles Industry

Program

8.30	Welcome tea/coffee
9.00	Introduction to the project	Kerryn Caulfield, Executive Manager, TTNA
9.10	Sustainability Input Policies of Toyota	Jon ward, Environmental Policy Corporate Affairs, Strategy & Environment, Toyota Motor Corporation Australia
9.30	Questions from the floor
9.40	Sustainable Characteristics and Opportunities Offered from Hemp Fibres	Phil Warner, Managing Director and Founder, Ecofibre Industries
10.00	Questions from the floor
10.10	PLA Fibres: CSIRO's Research Outcomes for Commercial Products	Dr Mike O'Shea, Principal Research Scientist, CSIRO Molecular Health & Technologies
10.30	Questions from the floor
10.40	Morning Tea
11.00	The Journey to Understand the Environmental Footprint of Polypropylene	Katherine Simmons, Sustainability Project Manager, LyondellBasell Australia
11.20	Questions from the floor
11.30	The Trouble with Greenwash – How businesses can avoid the pitfalls when promoting themselves in a green marketplace	Frank Lilley, Small Business & Outreach Manager, Victoria, The Australian Competition & Consumer Commission
11.50	Questions from the floor
12.00	Can a manufacturing plant can be run on renewable (solar) energy?	Nic Jacobson, Senior Engineer Renewable Energy, GHD, and ANZSES Victorian Branch Vice President
12.20	Questions from the floor
12.30	Open discussion
1.00	Light working lunch	