

The 2007 Annual TTNA Conference
The Three Rs – Recreation, Resources and Retirement
30th & 31st August 2007 Albury, NSW – Australia

The TTNA is presenting its seventh Annual Conference - The Three Rs – Recreation, Resources and Retirement, in Albury, NSW, in August 2007.

Record this event in your diary now!

Whether it be sports equipment and grounds, mining, processing and storage of our precious minerals and resources, or medical/hygiene products for the elderly, the technical and nonwoven textiles industry is the catalyst industry which increasingly plays a role in our lives.

Why you should attend

The TTNA Annual Conference attracts senior decision-makers and staff from all areas of the industry, with local and international representation from manufacturers, fabricators, suppliers, and government, as well as educational and research organisations.

Learn from best practice examples and assess the latest technologies and equipment available in the marketplace.

Develop new business relationships while meeting suppliers, customers and new partners in the one place at one time.

Afterwards, you'll find that the Albury-Wodonga region has an abundance to offer in terms of sightseeing, action sports, entertainment and culture. Take the family spring skiing over the weekend, or explore the hospitality of the wine and gourmet regions in the neighboring towns of Rutherglen and Millawa.

Why you should sponsor

The TTNA Annual Conference provides a dynamic opportunity for business generation and market penetration. Sponsors enjoy a wide range of possibilities for direct access to potential and existing clients from their target industries and companies. Significant emphasis is placed upon the quality of the conference agenda and the depth of the relationships between TTNA management and key industry bodies. Both play a crucial role in ensuring that the people you meet at this event are the people who matter for your business.

Sponsorship options and other networking opportunities are tailored to deliver maximum value for your investment.

Stay ahead of the pack at the TTNA Annual Conference 2007!
Interested? Contact Lorraine Gierck on lorraine@ttna.com.au for further details.
Don't miss out.

Give a Presentation; Exhibit your Products and Services

We invite abstracts for technical presentations relevant to the theme, and also invite you to present your products or services in a table top exhibition during the breaks.

Be involved with this major event - as a speaker, an exhibitor, a sponsor or a delegate. Showcase your company! Learn and experience. Expand your contacts and meet the "who's who" in the world of technical and nonwoven textiles.

Read more about it on the website – www.ttna.com.au